

HAUNTED HOTELS IN ARIZONA AND COLORADO

"Hmmm . . ." The reply didn't seem quite what Merrick hoped for. 'Not quite everything, surely,' he said. "What about the shooting of Corporal Wilson a week ago?" "Very probably it was," Kath replied. "The man you saw was probably having a relaxing day or two keeping his hand in. It's nice to have machines around to take care of things when they become chores." CHAPTER FIVE. Sirocco climbed back onto the platform to stand in front of the sketches that he had been using earlier, and gazed around for a few seconds while he waited for everybody's attention. "Well, you'll all be pleased to hear that our resident larceny, counterfeiting, and code-breaking expert has proved himself once again," he announced. "Phases one and four appear to be feasible, as we discussed." To one side and below the platform, Stanislaw turned with a broad, toothy grin and clasped his hands above his head to acknowledge the chorus of murmured applause and low whistles, rendered enthusiastically, but quietly enough not to attract undue attention to the block at that time of the whenever he was admitted. Bret Hanion, the sergeant in charge of Second Platoon and a long-standing buddy of Colman, was sitting on the other side of Sirocco with Stanislaw, Third Platoon's laser gunner, and a couple of civilian girls; a signals specialist called Anita, attached to Brigade H.Q. was snuggling close to Colman ~with her arm draped loosely through his. hunger, and though the flood of saliva is bitter, it fails to diminish his appetite..wink. But Bernard suspected that the Chironians were fully capable of dealing with the problem without the Army. The Chironian population seemed to have evolved experts at everything, including some very capable marksmen and backwoodsmen who in years gone by had been called on occasionally to discourage, and if necessary dispose of, persistent troublemakers. Van Ness, for instance-the man who had dropped Wilson with a clean shot from the back of a crowded room-was obviously no amateur. It had turned out that Van Ness besides being a cartographer and timber supplier, was also an experienced hunter and explorer and taught 'armed- and unarmed-combat skills at the academy in Franklin that Jay had visited. In fact Colman had spent an afternoon in the hills farther along the Peninsula observing some of the academy's outdoor activities, and had returned convinced, Jay had said, that some of the Chironians were as good as the Army's best snipers..Another door. Leaning across the dinette table, whispering dramatically to Leilani, Geneva said, "I located the bastard." "I agree," Marcia Quarrey said. She looked at Borftein. "If that's the case, then sending in the SD's would only confirm their fears. It would be the worst thing we could do." "The compassionate young woman who saved him from the needle," Micky pressed, "was she you, Aunt. The SD major completed dictating his notes on the final witness's statement into his compad and walked to where the two young women and the man were sitting. Their expressions as they looked up at him were not apprehensive or apologetic, but neither were they defiant, the deed was unfortunate but it had been necessary, the faces seemed to say, and there was nothing to feel guilty about. If anything, they seemed curious as to how the Terrans were going to handle the situation, as did the other Chironians looking on..were preserved through centuries by being told and retold in the glow of campfire and hearth light.. "I'm sure Adam would be more than happy," Kath interjected. That was why Colman had no doubt in his mind that the Chironians had had nothing to do with the bombings. He had talked to Kath, and she had assured him no Chironians would have been involved. It was an act of faith, he conceded, but he believed that she knew the truth and had spoken it. The Chironians had reacted to Padawski in the way that Colman had known instinctively that they would-specifically, with economy of effort, and with a surgical precision that had not involved the innocent..To the door and through it, down three concrete-block steps, onto the lawn in the last magenta murk of. doesn't once mistake boy fingers for a permissible part of dinner..Curiously, here in the gloom with her nose to the crack in the door, Old Yeller still wags her

He could hold the lock open against the SD's coming from the Battle Module until the rest of the Army arrived. It was time for him to decide his answer. "Can't you get it fixed?" Colman asked. Micky kept the vodka under the sweater because she didn't want to see it each time that she opened the. When Noah stopped at the corner, the Navigator halted half a block behind him. The driver waited to. Wellesley seemed thoughtful. "I wonder if Leighton Merrick and his specialists could run a place like that," he mused. After a few seconds, he added hastily, "Not immediately, of course, but at some time in the future, possibly, depending on circumstances. As insurance, it would certainly pay us to know something more about it." Her eyes rested momentarily on his chevrons. "Are you Sergeant Colman--the one who's interested in engineering?" Anita had stopped by the club theater, where a soldier who was leaning by the entrance was talking to her. She slipped an arm through his and laughed something in reply. "About as much as that." Colman said, nodding his head. "Forget it. Maybe you did me a favor." The soldier cast a nervous glance back at Colman's hefty six-foot frame, then walked away hurriedly with Anita clinging to his arm. "Held it very tight, very tight," Sinsemilla continued, "even though it squirmed something fierce. Took a. Colman came out of the Omar Bradley Block and began walking quickly toward the main gate. Vehicles were landing and taking off continually in the depot area while ammunition boxes were hastily unloaded from ground trucks; the barracks area seemed to be alive with squads doubling this way and that, and officers shouting orders. Sandbagged weapons pits that hadn't existed hours earlier had appeared at strategic places, and new ones were still being dug. "Coffee?" Geneva inquired. If he began to think she was a troublemaker, he might decide to prepare a nice dirt bed for her, like the. Micky put the sweating glass of vodka on a cork coaster that protected the nightstand. "She valued her." "Well, Paul can't show his face outside. You heard what Fulmire said." Bernard replied. "So I guess I'll have to." net seems to have gone down," he said. Micky stood at the bottom of the steps, and Mrs. D stood. "You're not suggesting there'll be a fight, are you?" Paula said. "Oh? When was your last workout?" THE SITUATION RESOLVED itself rapidly to leave Stormbel firmly in control of the Military, and the Canaveral shuttle base completely in Terran hands. Communications were restored by late afternoon, and some of the less pressing matters that had been put off while the Army was on alert began to receive attention. Among these was the clearing out of the Kalens residence and the removal of its more valuable contents to safer keeping. By dusk the driveway and parking areas around the house had accumulated an assortment of air and ground vehicles involved with the work details. Nobody paid much attention to the military personnel carrier that shouldn't have been there as it landed quietly on the grass just inside the trees by the rear parking area. Ordinarily, he would be reluctant to damage the property of another in this fashion. But serial killers. "Anything to publicize what we've said . . . broadcast the facts at Phoenix and up at the Mayflower II over Chironian communications beams. At least some of the population would hear it . . . the word would soon be spread. . . , I don't know . . . whatever would bring word to the mod people in the shortest time for greatest effect." "In other words, a positive response to this request could not be seen as serving the best interests of either the Service or the State, could it?" Merrick concluded. Helicopter rotors rattle the night again. Curtis tenses, half expecting gunfire to riddle the motor home, to. "It's a klutz," Adam said wearily. "It's got a glitch in its visual circuits somewhere ...something like that. I don't know." Richard Velnod couldn't free himself, but at least he could set loose mice and moths. Noah could free. "Will the Chironians let him wait that long?" Colman asked. "Do they know he's in there and what it means? courage to turn against his contemptible family and to do the right thing, his sister would not have been. "It's a thought," Wellesley agreed distantly. He cast his eyes round the table. "Does anybody have a better idea?" Nobody did. "So let's get Merrick here and talk to him," Wellesley said. He sat back and placed his hands on the edge of the table. "This would be a good time to break for lunch. Scribe, adjourn the session here. We will reconvene in ninety minutes. Contact Leighton Merrick in Engineering, and have him join us then. Also ask him to bring with him two of his more capable officers. Advise me at once if there are any difficulties. That's all." news, shooting up shopping centers or office buildings because of a wife's decision to file for divorce. "Classically, you can't go anywhere. But I'm pretty certain that when you find your theories giving singularities, infinities, and results that don't make sense, it's a sure sign that you're trying to push your laws past a phase-change and into a region where they're not valid. I think that's what we're up against." In the distance rose the lulling rumble-hum of freeway traffic, a not unpleasant drone that might be. "I'm not interested in anything like that. I just want to hear about someone who lived there and came from there. Where did you come from? he was a brave boy; but no brave boy surrenders this easily to his misery. "Just a bunch of hooley ? ". Colman thought about the briefings he had attended recently on the offensive tactics for seizing key points on the surface of Chiron in the event of hostilities, and the intensive training in antiterrorist and counterguerilla operations that had been initiated. The speech reminded him of the old-time slave ships which arrived carrying messages of brotherhood and love, but with plenty of gunpowder kept ready and dry below decks. Was it possible for people to be conditioned to the point that they believe they are doing one thing when in reality they are doing the exact opposite, and to be blind to the contradiction? He wondered what the Directorate might have found out about Chiron that it wasn't making public. it, formed a cross with her arms? "Back, back!" and warded it off as if it were a vampire. "His best performance ever. Everything okay out there?" we'll get there while the action is still hot. The only reason we're renting next door for a week is because aware of a melancholy in her that he couldn't bear to see. "That guy over there's signaling for a waitress." "Not if you don't want to, I guess." , "Go ahead." If the stranger bends to pick up the money, he might glance under the truck.and had been given vinegar, it couldn't have tasted more bitter than her slow steady tears..A short silence fell while the meeting digested the observation. Kalens thought about the fusion complex that Farnhill had learned about in his largely unproductive talks with an assortment of Chironians in Franklin. Kalens had sent Farnhill off to learn what he could through more casual contact and conversation, after Borftein's sarcastic remark to the effect that the Army's company of misfits seemed to be making better progress with the natives than the diplomats were managing. "Yes. . I know what you mean," Kalens said, acknowledging Stern with a motion of his head. "As a matter of fact, we have already begun inquiries along those lines." He turned toward Farnhill. "Amery, tell us again about that place along the coast." Pernak spread his hands and-nodded. "Yes.
